

J. E. Dallas & Sons Ltd.

London, England

- 1873 John E. Dallas (1856-1921) left J. E. Brewster to start making his own banjos.
- 1875 J.E. Dallas & Sons was started with four sons at #415 Strand St, London.
- 1893 Dallas took over the entire 415 Strand location.
- 1905 Now JE Dallas & Sons Ltd.
- 1914 Dallas moved to #202 High Holborn St, London.
- 1926 Dallas moved to 6-10 Betterton St, London.
- 1930 Dallas sold the Jedson and Mastertone brands.
- 1937 Dallas moved to Ridgemont St, London.
- 1950s Dallas moved to Clifton St.
- 1960s Their name changed to Dallas Musical Ltd.

[Above history from dallaspedals.com.]

Photos 1-3: Rudy Muck 7M distributed by Dallas.

Photo 4: Rudy Muck 2M distributed by Dallas.

Photo 5: Rudy Muck 32M distributed by Dallas.

New Dearman Super #1176

New Dearman Special #1201.

The Dearman Master, New Special, and New Super were a trademark of Dallas and made by Bohland & Fuchs of Graslitz, Austria before WWII. The Dearman Special above had the Ridgemont address on the bell.

Photos are from auction sales unless noted.

