

ADIRONDACK COMPANY'S OFFICE,

SARATOGA SPRINGS, April 22nd 1869

B. P. Bruhaus & Son
Gents

Some of the 20th inst was recd yesterday -
Our trackman Mr Eastman was up over the new part of the road yesterday and reports unusually high water, with the probability of a good deal of damage to our road -

We had hoped to be able to take freight from opposite your place very soon but at present everything very uncertain -
Yours Truly

S. M. Seymour

April 22nd, 1869

B. P. Bruhaus & Son

Gents

Yours of the 20th inst was recd yesterday. Our trackman Mr Eastman was up over the new part of the road yesterday and reports unusually high water with the probability of a good deal of damage to our road.

We had hoped to be able to take freight from opposite your place very soon but at present everything very uncertain.

Yours Truly
S. M. Seymour

(On the back, Bruhaus & Son is located in Warrensburgh.)

(Correct spelling is Burhans & Son who operated a large tannery in Warrensburg.)